

WALK THE WALK

Raise a global leader

WHY WALK THE WALK?

Are you looking to raise caring and collaborative global leaders? Then Roots & Wings Walk that Walk is for you!

Walk the Walk provides space for parents and guardians to talk about the challenges of raising youth and gain parenting tools to take home and into their communities.

WHAT IS WALK THE WALK?

WTW is a four part program designed for parents and guardians of youth. Participants will; learn to how to have difficult conversations, practice communication methods based on youth developmental stages, explore parenting techniques that build leadership, and understand the strengths of family culture and identity in raising youth.

HOW DOES WALK THE WALK WORK?

Roots & Wings Training Facilitators lead four workshops. Participants learn how to develop and support identity based leadership skills in their youth. R&Ws provides participants take home tools to continue practicing with other guardians in their community. We supply all materials needed for WTW and offer ongoing consultation before, during and after.
